Central Congregational UCC in Atlanta rolled out the red carpet for us all. They provided a team of church members that were ready to direct meeting attendees, prepare food for the hungry, coordinate the day's agenda and see that everyone felt at home. Thank you Central!

Many joined us for the early morning Conversation Corners. There were eight different corners to choose from and the topics covered many interests. We had wonderful discussions and a lot of listening. Click here to read a reflection of the Transforming Churches Campaign discussion.
